

Course Name:
ICS for EMS

Course Description:

This course provides the students with an understanding of the incident command system for very large incidents and how EMS providers fit in. The course counts towards fulfilling the NIMS 100 and 200 courses as required for supervisory and field personnel. For more information please contact Cetronia's Education Department at caceducation@cetronia.org