

Course Name:

Mass Casualty Incident Management - Intermediate

Course Description:

This course will provide the participants additional knowledge and hands-on experience beyond the basic course. The focus will be on handling complex events and further development of leadership skills in command and transport areas. Additionally, more focus will be presented in treating a large number of victims with minimal resources. For more information please contact Cetronia's Education Department at caceducation@cetronia.org